BUSINESS

Schedule Time with Delta City Public Works

Chairman Rick Nielson stated that he had hoped to meet with City Public Works Assistant Director Dent Kirkland to discuss and establish a completion date on current projects. Mr. Kirkland was not able to attend, so the discussion was tabled until a later meeting.

Establish a Spraying Plan with Delta City Public Works Crew

There was a discussion regarding getting the range sprayed for weeds before there was remaining stubble to deal with on the portion north of the rifle range and center sidewalk. Chairman Nielson determined that he would speak to the Delta City Crew to see when this could be scheduled.

Plan Further Development of Cleared Area on Rifle Range, Trap Range and future needs.

Chairman Rick Nielson showed Board Member Painter on a map where he wanted to place chips on the range to keep shooters out of the mud when shooting trap. They discussed where the Hunter's Safety Range would be, north of the bench rest. There was a discussion on the bench rests and drainage in regards to the trap shooting range. There was a discussion regarding the target range and what kind of system would work favorably. A cement sidewalk was discussed by the board, on the target range, with boxes on the end of the sidewalk for the targets. There was an exchange regarding a more detailed target range project and the pros and cons, as well.

Other Business

The Board had a discussion regarding member attendance, and the inability to get business done without board member's attendance. Board Member Josh Painter MOTIONED to adopt a policy that encouraged member attendance by removing members that miss more than two meetings unexcused. Chairman Nielson SECONDED the motion. Chairman Nielson asked if there were any comments or questions regarding the motion. There being none, he called for a vote. The motion passed with Members Broderick, Keel, Fife, City Attorney Anderson and City Representative John Niles being absent. Board Member Painter discussed the possibility of finding a sponsor for a youth turkey shoot. Chairman Nielson reminded the Board of possible liability in such activities and the care that needed to be taken in their endeavor. They agreed that talking with City Attorney Todd Anderson in regards to this kind of activity. The Board talked about getting someone who was NRA certified and helpful working with young people to assist with this type of project. Chairman Nielson stated he would like to see this kind of activity take place.

There were no other matters of discussion. Chairman Rick Nielson declared the meeting adjourned at 7:30 p.m.
