BUSINESS

Progress Report on White River Academy Projects

Chairman Rick Nielson thanked Member Bill Keel for applying the rubber at the range. Member Bill Keel introduced Hunter Rainy and Jim Bart. He turned the time over to them to report on their respective projects. Hunter Rainy, student from White River Academy, reported about his project with lining the pistol targets with railroad ties. He stated that he completed his plan, and his fund raiser for the project. Mr. Rainy said that he also has everything that he needs to begin his project. He stated that he went out to the range and sprayed ant killer to begin. His next step will to begin labor on this project with a completion date in November. Jim Barto, student of White River Academy, reported that his project was to install 330 feet of fencing along the river. He stated that he has secured the materials for his project, and raised funds by working. Mr. Barto said that he still needs to finish fundraising and that he plans to complete the project in the middle of November.

Delta City Works Coordination with White River Academy

Delta City Representative, Ken Clark, made arrangements to coordinate schedules in assisting with the White River Academy Shooting Range projects. Mr. Clark stated that it would be better for the City crew to schedule before November because of pending City projects.

NRA Grant Applications for Shooting Range Projects

Chairman Rick Nielson stated that Craig Nielson, Friends of NRA, was unable to attend the meeting. Mr. Craig Nielson did say that the grant applications must be submitted by the end of October. Chairman Nielson stated that it was imperative to get a grant committee together to meet with Mr. Craig Nielson and his wife, who has experience writing grants. Chairman Nielson also stated that the Board needed to choose a project to raise the grant money for. The Board discussed different possibilities, including bench covers and bench rests, target stands and a cement strip to shoot from. It was decided by the Board to appoint Members Steve Broderick, Josh Painter and Chairman Rick Nielson as the committee to put together the NRA grant.

Other Business

Chairman Rick Nielson asked if there was any other business. There was a question regarding the Shooting Range Signs, and Chairman Nielson claimed that he is in the process of simplifying the language on the signs. City Attorney Todd Anderson asked if there was a rule regarding alcohol on the sign. Chairman Nielson stated that "No Alcohol" was a good rule to add. There were no other matters of discussion. Chairman Rick Nielson declared the meeting adjourned at 7:43 p.m.
