Waivers: You must have a UDOT waiver on file for each participant on your entry. Entries are due at the City Office by June 27th.

Rules: NO stopping:

To keep the parade moving and enjoyable for spectators, entries are not allowed to stop and perform. If you plan to perform, you need to make sure that it is a forward motion consistent with the flow of the parade. Anyone wishing to perform may sign up to participate in the park entertainment following the patriotic program contact Ron or Lorelei Draper 864-4716.

Giveaways:

Due to safety concerns, special consideration should be taken when distributing items from your entry.

- Items should be tossed not thrown. Tossed items land gently, thrown items do not and can cause injury.
- Items should be tossed past the white line. Far enough that spectators do not have any reason to come past the white line or approach an entry.
- Never on any occasion should any item be handed to a spectator from your entry. Spectators should be encouraged to stay back and not approach entries.

Please, please do everything possible to ensure that your entry is encouraging a safe activity. Remember, it only takes one problem or violation for us to lose this fun activity.
